9. RALPH SHELDON, son of Arthur Sheldon, was born in Ashford about 1605, and probably died at sea in 1651. He married in Bakewell, April 27, 1629, Barbara Stone. On January 10, 1650/1 he was granted a license to pass beyond the seas and the last mention of him is in the will of his father who left him and his wife Barbara 2s. 6d. each. No trace of him has been found in New England, and as his name does not appear on the hearth tax of County Derby, in which every householder is named, it is fair to assume that he died at sea.

Issue: (probably born in Ashford) Isaac, Samuel, Solomon, all named in their grandfather's will.

10. ISAAC SHELDON, son of Ralph and Barbara (Stone) Sheldon, was probably born at Ashford late in 1629 or early in 1630. As the registers of Ashford before 1687 are lost his baptism has not been found. The only record found of him in England is in the will of his grandfather who left him a legacy of eight pounds, and he is without doubt the identical Isaac, who as Isaac Shelding, Sr., deposed at Northampton, Mass., on April 29, 1679 that he was about 50 years of age and who first appears on September 13, 1652 in Windsor, Conn., when he as Isaac Sheldon and Samuel Rockwell were given permission to keep house together in Isaac's house, showing that no wife was with him. He married first, in 1653, Mary, born 1636, died Northampton, Mass., April 17, 1684, daughter of Thomas and Mary (Blott) Woodford of Hartford, Conn. and Northampton, Mass.; married second, in 1686, Mrs. Mehitable (Gunn) Ensign, born July 28, 1644, Windsor, died January 30, 1720/1, Northampton, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth Gunn and former wife of David Ensign of Hartford.

Shortly before September 13, 1652, Isaac purchased a house in Windsor and a three acre lot from John Stiles but in 1656 removed to Northampton, Mass., where he died July 27, 1708, aged 78 years, leaving a will recorded in Hampshire Probate Records, Vol. 3, p. 188.

Issue: (by first wife) Mary, Isaac, John, Thomas, Ruth, Thankful, Mindwell, Joseph, Hannah, Eleazer, Samuel, Ebenezer, Mercy; (by second wife) Jonathan.

11. THANKFUL SHELDON, daughter of Isaac and Mary (Woodford) Sheldon, was born in Northampton, Mass., August 27, 1663, and married there February 23, 1680/1, Benjamin Edwards, born June 24, 1652, died in 1724.

See Edwards.

REV. HENRY SMITH.

FIRST GENERATION.

REV. HENRY SMITH, first settled minister of Wethersfield, Conn., is supposed, from the tenor of his will, to have been twice married. Of his first wife nothing is known; of his second wife, her Christian name only, which was Dorathy. After his death, she was married to Mr. John Russell, of Wethersfield, father of Rev. John Russell, jun., successor of her first husband, in the ministry at Wethersfield, and afterwards first minister of Hadley, Mass. She was his second wife. Mr. John Russell died May 8, 1680, aged 83.*

Rev. Henry Smith died in 1648.

Mrs. Dorathy Smith, alias Russell, died at Hadley, in 1694.

SECOND GENERATION.

Children of Rev. Henry Smith,—by his first wife.†

I. Peregrine, born	Died, unmarried, before his father.
II. Daughter, born	Name unknown. Married, and had children before her father's death. Nothing more known of her.
III. Daughter, born	Name unknown. Married, and had children before her father's death. Nothing more known relating to her.

Children,—by his second wife.

IV. Dorathy,	born	1636.
V. Samuel,	born January	27, 1639.
VI. Joanna,	born December	25, 1641.

VIII. Elizabeth,	born August	25, 1648.

*Mr. John Russell removed from Wethersfield to Hadley, with his son Rev. John Russell and his other children, in 1659.

† The births of the four youngest children of Rev. Mr. Smith are recorded in Wethersfield Records. In his will Mr. Smith mentions son Peregrine, deceased, and two married daughters, who had children: these daughters must, of course, have been older than those recorded. By the will of Mrs. Smith, alias Russell, there was a daughter Dorathy; she was older than those born in Wethersfield, and younger than the two elder daughters. Thus there is proof that there had been at least eight children. From these premises, it may confidently be inferred, that the two married daughters were by a first and different wife, and that Dorathy was by a second wife. As Noah and Elizabeth are not mentioned in the will of their mother, it is to be concluded they died young.

DESCENDANTS IN THE LINE OF DORATHY SMITH, DAUGHTER OF THE REV. HENRY SMITH.

DORATHY SMITH was married four times. 1. To John Blakeman, of Stratford, Conn., son of Rev. Adam Blakeman, first minister of that town, about 1653. He died in 1662.* 2. To Francis Hall, of Stratford, October 31, 1665. She was his second wife. He died in 1689.† 3. To Mark Sension, of Norwalk, Conn. She was his second wife. He died in 1693, "aged about 59 years."‡ 4. To Deacon Isaac Moore, of Farmington, Conn., formerly of Norwalk, whom she survived. She was likewise his second wife.

*Mr. John Blakeman left a will which is dated January 19, 1662, in which he says, "Son Joseph, if he conducts himself dutifully towards his mother, he shall have 10 pounds more than the rest."

† Mr. Francis Hall left a will, which is dated May 6, 1686, and was presented to court July 9, 1689. His wife, Dorathy Hall, executrix. In this Instrument, Testator gives "to my loving wife, my written books that are legible: all that are written in correctness she may dispose of as she pleases. As for all my other books, my will is, that my wife, my son Samuel, and my daughter Mary, shall divide an distribute among themselves and to my other daughters, as they see cause,—all of them to have benefit by 'Looking unto Jesus,' which is the title of one of my books,—a Looking unto Jesus, by Mr. Huaradbeny."

‡ Mr. Mark Sension left a will, containing no date, but Inventory presented, and Court action thereon, November 7, 1693. An Indenture, signed by Mark Sension and Dorathy Hall, is recorded, by which in case of death, each abandons claim to the Survivor's property. This is dated January 21, 1692.

LINEAGE OF REV. WORTHINGTON SMITH, D.D.

The family of the late Rev. Worthington Smith, of St. Albans, Vermont, is traced with remarkable ease and certainty to the emigrant ancestor, SAMUEL SMITH, who, with his wife, ELIZABETH, and four children, viz.: Samuel, æt. 9; Elizabeth, æt. 7; Mary, æt. 4; and Philip, æt. 1, embarked for New England, from Ipswich, England, in the ship "Elizabeth," in April, 1634. The certificate of the master of the ship, preserved in the state paper office in England, a copy of which will be found in Hotten's Lists of Emigrants, gives the age both of Samuel and wife as thirty-two, at date of embarkation. Dr. Bond, in his history of Watertown, Mass., expresses the opinion that the family settled first at that place, removing in the ensuing year, with many others, to Wethersfield, Conn.

From the first Samuel appears to have taken a leading part in the affairs of the settlement. He commanded, with the rank of Lieutenant, the military force; was a magistrate, and probably Deputy for several years between 1637 and 1644. Hinman thinks that this latter distinction belongs to the son Samuel, but it is obvious that at the time mentioned he was too young to hold office. In 1659 a number of the Wethersfield settlers, among them Samuel Smith, removed and founded the town of Hadley, Mass. Here at last the family found a permanent resting place after their wanderings, and here five successive generations lived and died. For more than two hundred years the family was continuously represented among the male citizens of the town. In Hadley, as in Wethersfield, Samuel Smith "held important offices, both in church and State." He died in 1680, aged seventy-eight. His wife died in 1686.

Of the four sons of Samuel (1), the eldest, Samuel junior, removed to New London, Connecticut, where he was an active and conspicuous member of the community. He held the military rank of Lieutenant, the highest rank at that time conferred for a single town, and seems to have been prominently concerned in all important affairs. After reaching middle life, he made a journey to Virginia, from which he never returned. Letters were received from him, dated at Roanoke, but he offered no explanation of his continued absence, and after repeated remonstrances from the church, which were wholly disregarded, a divorce was granted to his wife, daughter of Rev. Henry Smith, of Wethersfield. The motive which prompted this inexplicable conduct remains a mystery. The apparent desertion of his wife forms a singular episode in the history of a family remarkable during two centuries for sober and Godly life. It is believed that this man had no children. Philip, the second son, is described as having been "one of the first men of his time in the town of his adoption" (Hadley), where he succeeded his father as Lieutenant and Deputy. After an eminently useful and exemplary life, he died, in 1685, "murdered by an hideous witchcraft," according to Cotton Mather. John, the youngest son, was slain by the Indians, in Hatfield Meadow, May 30, 1676. Each of these latter left children.

2. CHILEAB, the third son of Samuel (1), is the ancestor of the branch of the family now under consideration. He was born in this country, about 1636, and died March 7, 1731, aged 95. He married Oct. 2, 1661, Hannah, daughter of Luke Hitchcock, of Wethersfield. She died Aug. 31, 1733, aged 88. Fourteen children were born of this marriage, viz.: Hannah, born July 7, 1662, married, March 23, 1681, John Montague; Samuel, born March 9, 1665; Luke; Ebenezer, born July 11, 1668; Nathaniel, born Jan. 2, 1670, died same month; John, born Oct. 8, 1671, married, 1691, Martha Golding, and died about 1750; a son, who died 1673; Hester, born March 31, 1674, married, Oct. 20, 1696, Nathaniel Ingram; a daughter, who died March, 1677; Elizabeth, born Feb. 2, 1679, married, Oct. 26, 1698, James Smith; Mary, born Aug. 16, 1681, married (1), Dec. 15, 1697, Preserved Smith, (2) April 22, 1721, Peter Montague; Chileab, died Aug., 1682; Chileab, born Feb. 18, 1685; Sarah, born April 26, 1688, married, April 13, 1710, Jonathan Morton.

3. LUKE, second son of Chileab (2), was born April 16, 1666, was Captain, died in 1748, aged 82. He married, in 1690, Mary, daughter of Samuel Crow, of Hadley, who died June 19, 1761, aged 89. They had eleven children, viz.: Luke, born Feb. 12, 1691, died June 15, 1693; a son, born April 5, 1692, died four days later; Mary, married, Dec. 2, 1714, John Preston; Hannah, born March 1, 1694, married Nathaniel Dickinson; Luke, born May 21, 1697; Samuel, born May 23, 1699; Jonathan; Ruth, born April 8, 1703, married, Feb. 13, 1724, Israel Dickinson; David, born July 7, 1707,; Joseph, born March 22, 1710; Sarah, born May 5, 1713, married, Aug. 9, 1734, Rev. James Smith, of Granby.

BIOGRAPHY OF CHARLES L. SPROUSE

Charles L. Sprouse was born in Gallipolis, Ohio on 18 April 1840, the son of Lewis and Cynthia Doolittle Sprouse. Lewis' family is listed as living in Cabell County, (now West) Virginia in the 1840 census, although they had previously lived in Gallia County, OH. In the Fall of 1841, they moved by river boat down the Ohio River to Moore's Prairie township, Jefferson County, Illinois, where Lewis is thought to have bought land.

Lewis probably died before Charles was ten years old, as the 1850 Jefferson County census shows Cynthia Sprouse as the head of her household, living in Mount Vernon, IL. She must then have passed on during the 1850's, as she was not listed in the 1860 census, although two of her older sons appear to have established households in the area.

Quoting from a letter from Alpa King Sprouse, Charles' wife, to the Pension Bureau, dated 3 July 1916:

> "He was a boy whose parents died while he was but a child. He had an older brother and an older sister, both dead long ago, but he was not much with them."

On 1 July 1861, Charles enlisted in "F" Company, 15th Regiment of Illinois Volunteers at Alton, Madison County, IL. He served as a Private soldier with that unit until he contracted typhoid fever, and then was honorably discharged at Memphis, TN on 11 December 1862. After a period of convalescence, he re-enlisted, this time in "C" Co., 60th Regt., Illinois Volunteers on 30 December 1863 at Olney, Richland Co., IL, serving with this unit until the war was over, being discharged at Louisville, KY on 31 July 1865.

At the time of his disability discharge from the 15th Regt., in December 1862, Charles was described as being 22 years of age, five (5) feet ten (10) inches tall, of dark complexion, with dark eyes and hair, and by occupation a farmer when enlisted.

There now followed a period of approximately nine years of restless movement of a sick veteran. The tyhoid fever had left him with a persistent cough, often coughing up blood, and unable to do more than one third to one half of a days work, relying on patent medicines for relief from his ailments. His travels are not well known, although he appears to have stayed with his sister, Lucy H. Lynch and her family for some time, that he traveled down the Mississippi River to New Orleans and back, and that much time was spent in the states of Illinois and Missouri.

In 1874, at the age of 34, he probably was empolyed by Samuel A. King, who lived in Pottawattamie County, Iowa. On 30 May, 1875, he married Alpa, Samuel and Hannah King's oldest daughter.

The 1880 census for Cass Co., IA shows the Sprouse family living in the Lewis, IA area. They now had two sons, Samuel L., born 20 March 1876 and John W. who was born on 14 March 1879. A daughter, Hannah Idela, came to the family on 27 November 1881.

In 1883, Jay King, son of Samuel King, led a large party of settlers to the Marshall Co., Dakota Territory area. Charles and Alpa Sprouse and their three children were included in this move.

Charles bought land there on 07 January 1884, described as the Northeast Quarter of Section No. 24 in Township No. 126 North of Range No. 58 West (160 acres). He paid $200 or $1.25 per acre for this land.

A second daughter, Mary E., known as Mamie, was born here on 18 December 1883. Charles A., their third son, joined the family on 23 August 1887, followed by a daughter, Maggie E., born 27 November 1890, who was to die an infant, and Marvin Edwin who was welcomed to the family on 25 February 1892.

His chronic health problems continued to plague Charles, and seem to have prevented him from properly working his land, making it necessary to pledge the land to secure a loan. In March of 1892, the Sprouse's lost their land to the mortgage holder.

In 1893, Charles and his growing family returned to Lewis, Iowa, where the Sprouse's last child, Frank Atwell was born on 23 December 1894.

Samuel L. Sprouse, their first-born son, was enlisted in "F" Co., 13th Minnesota Infantry Volunteers on 07 May 1898, to serve two years or during the war. He was discharged at Manilla, Philippine Islands on 05 July 1899 and then re-enlisted on 07 July 1899 in the 36th U. S. Volunter Infantry. He was to die in the service of his country, in the Philippines on 27 December 1900.

The family continued to live in the Lewis area until 1910, when they homesteaded on the Southeast Quarter of Section No. 6, in Township No. 17 North, Range No. 23 East in the Firesteel area of Dewey Co., South Dakota.

After a year in South Dakota, Charles returned to Lewis, IA for a year or so. By 1915, he was back in Dewey Co. SD.

Charles was to live until he was nearly 76 years old, dying on 19 Feb 1916 at his homestead near Firesteel, SD.
